

ABSTRACT

BUMDes (BUMG) is a business entity whose capital is wholly or substantially owned by the village through direct participation originating from village assets that are separated to manage assets, services, and other businesses for the greatest possible welfare of the village community. Besides that Gampong Riseh Teugoh has abundant natural resources such as paddy rice, areca nut and chili. BUMG Riseh Teugoh is developing a type of depot farming business, namely providing various needs and agricultural equipment such as providing seeds, fertilizers, pesticides and others for Gampong Riseh Teugoh agriculture. Women's Savings and Loans (SPP).

This study aims to determine farmers' perceptions of the role of village-owned enterprises in supporting agricultural sector activities in Gampong Riseh Teugeh, Sawang District, North Aceh District. The research method used in this research is descriptive qualitative method with data measurement using a Likert scale.

The results showed that farmers' perceptions of the role of the existence of businesses belonging to Gampong Riseh Teungoeh, Sawang District, North Aceh Regency in supporting the agricultural sector were generally included in the good category with an index value of 83.08%. Farmers' perceptions of savings and loans for members of farmer groups have the highest score with an index value of 86.44, farmer group coaching has an index value of 85.65%, production inputs have an index value of 80.78% and yield collection has an index value of 79.47%.

Keywords: Perseptions, Farmers', BUMDes.