

ABSTRAK

This research was conducted in Maniwak Village Wasior District Teluk Wondama Regency. This research aims to determine the perceptions of sago farmers regarding the effectiveness of using sago grating machines in Maniwak Village Wasior District Teluk Wondama Regency. The research method used was a survey with questionnaire tools. Sampling used Simple Random Sampling with a sample size of 50 sago farmers. Data analysis uses a Likert scale. The results of this research show that the perception of sago farmers regarding the effectiveness of using sago grating machines in Maniwak Village Wasior District Teluk Wondama Regency in producing sago is very effective. The average percentage value of using a sago grating machine is 69. In the very effective category.

Keywords : Sago farmers and the effectiveness of using sago grating machines